

Sunday, June 14, 2020

Marc Davis

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND APPLICATION

Sit Down and Be Quiet

Psalm 62

The end of competence

1. How do the images of a rock, a refuge, and a fortress speak to your own present experience of how you need God's help?

2. How is the pattern of your capital-S Salvation instructive for navigating your daily need for lowercase-s salvation?

3. Is it difficult for you to be incompetent? Is it hard to relinquish control? What would it look like for you to be moved toward a deeper daily reliance on God?

The kind of salvation I need: Rock, Refuge, Fortress

4. And could that reliance on him be in some way liberating? How so?

Waiting for salvation from outside with a Capital S

with a lowercase s

Giving up on self-reliance