*My days are like the evening shadow; I wither away like grass.
But you, LORD, sit enthroned forever;
your renown endures through all generations.*
~ Psalm 102:11–12

PRELUDE	You Are My Strength	Worship Team, Jim Hutchings, Leader
ANNOUNCEMENTS		Mark Moser, Pastor
CALL TO WORSHIP	Psalm 33:3–6, 10–11	Mark Moser
SPECIAL MUSIC	How Firm a Foundation
RESPONSIVE READING	Heidelberg Catechism, Question 1 Q (LEADER): What is your only comfort in life and in death? A (ALL): That I am not my own, but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death, to my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil. He also preserves me in such a way that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, all things must work together for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit he also assures me of eternal life and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for him.

ADDITIONAL MEDITATION ON PSALM 90

DWELLING PLACE

(Psalm 90)

© 1992 Bruce L. Johnson

You have been our dwelling place
in every generation;
It was you who set the stars in space
and laid the earth's foundation.
You are the Alpha and the Omega—
the Beginning and the End;
You are our King and our Creator;
you are our Savior and our Friend.
You have been our dwelling place
in every generation.
O Lord, from everlasting to everlasting
you are God

You have been our dwelling place
in every generation,
And may we always seek your face,
O Rock of our salvation.
Our lives are like the flowers that quickly blossom, quickly fade,
So restore us to your favor,
and bless the things our hands have made!
You have been our dwelling place
in every generation.
O Lord, from everlasting to everlasting
you are God
