

ADULT ED CLASSES

9:50-10:50am Sundays
beginning January 8, 2023

Missiology: Understanding the What, Why, and How of Christian Mission

Led by Pastor Mark Moser with various guests
Sanctuary
Ends at Easter

Most believers, including New Lifers, use language about mission. We speak of missionaries, short-term missions, and being "missional." Why do we talk this way? Did God say "mission" is important? And if so, how do we do it? Christian mission has been full of joys, challenges, and mistakes. Let's take a close look at perhaps the most exciting thing on earth: God saving the lost through believers sent on mission.

How Should the Church Address Racial Injustice?: Having a good faith discussion in the church

Led by Vince Pellerito and Alden Groves
Fellowship Hall, the side near the Sanctuary
January 8th - February 12th, 2023

How does the Church show unity in Christ while having honest discussions on topics that divide our society? How does Scripture exhort us to engage one another when there is disagreement? In this class presented by the Racial Unity Committee, we will have small group discussions on the material presented in the Good Faith Debates series from The Gospel Coalition. We will listen and share with one another on racial justice and how the Church should be involved. Alden Groves will teach Week 1 with subsequent weeks based on content from the video debate.

Shepherding Our Children

--and All of Us--

Toward Sexual Sanity

Led by Nicholas Black and Joe Bisulca, with materials from Harvest USA
Fellowship Hall, the side near the Kitchen
Continues through the end of February

It's a crazy, challenging world, and our children need us to point them towards sexual sanity. But how? In January and February, we will focus on protecting our families from pornography and technological hazards, as well as examine gender through both cultural and biblical worldviews. This class is part of our ParentsLife ministry. All are welcome to join.

1 & 2 Samuel

Led by various teachers (mostly current seminarians or graduates)
Library, lecture-side
Ends in June

It begins with Samuel the prophet and ends with a dying king David. Why did God give Israel a king? What can we learn from Saul and David? And how does this all point to Christ? Join us as we discuss each chapter of this marvelous history.

Women's Bible Study on the Gospel of Mark

Led by Diane Marsh
Room 107 (near the Sanctuary)
Resumes January 15, continues through end of academic year

Good News from the King: A Study of the Gospel According to Mark. This is New Life's Women's Bible Study, but on Sundays!
