

The Best Life You Can Have

Psalm 1: 1-6

1. What a righteous person doesn't do
2. What a righteous person does do
3. What difference does it make?

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you see the world in God's stark, righteousness/wickedness distinctions? Is it easier or harder to agree with him?
2. When are you most tempted or influenced by the counsel of the wicked, the way of sinners or by the seat of scoffers?
3. When you pursue God, are you motivated (i.e. "driven") more by duty or delight?
4. Can you remember a time when you were blown away by the beauty of Christ and what he's done for you, such that it drew you to him?

The Best Life You Can Have

Psalm 1: 1-6

1. What a righteous person doesn't do
2. What a righteous person does do
3. What difference does it make?

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you see the world in God's stark, righteousness/wickedness distinctions? Is it easier or harder to agree with him?
2. When are you most tempted or influenced by the counsel of the wicked, the way of sinners or by the seat of scoffers?
3. When you pursue God, are you motivated (i.e. "driven") more by duty or delight?
4. Can you remember a time when you were blown away by the beauty of Christ and what he's done for you, such that it drew you to him?