

O Love that Will not Let Me Go

Psalms 32: 1-11

1) What does God do when you have strayed from him?

2) What does he do to keep you from straying again?

3) What do you need to do to respond to him?

Discussion Questions

- 1) How regularly do you find yourself confessing your sin to God? Is confession something you look forward to?
- 2) How does your experience of confessing compare with David's (i.e., Do you feel blessed, loved, glad in the Lord and full of joy?)?
- 3) Can you share a time when you have experienced God's unconditional, total commitment to keeping you from straying from him?
- 4) Who has been helpful to you—like David is—in pointing the way forward as you have learned to acknowledge your sins more readily to God?
- 5) How are you helping your children, younger believers, and/or your friends to run to God quickly and re-experience his covenantal love in the middle of their deepest failings?

O Love that Will not Let Me Go

Psalms 32: 1-11

1) What does God do when you have strayed from him?

2) What does he do to keep you from straying again?

3) What do you need to do to respond to him?

Discussion Questions

- 1) How regularly do you find yourself confessing your sin to God? Is confession something you look forward to?
- 2) How does your experience of confessing compare with David's (i.e., Do you feel blessed, loved, glad in the Lord and full of joy?)?
- 3) Can you share a time when you have experienced God's unconditional, total commitment to keeping you from straying from him?
- 4) Who has been helpful to you—like David is—in pointing the way forward as you have learned to acknowledge your sins more readily to God?
- 5) How are you helping your children, younger believers, and/or your friends to run to God quickly and re-experience his covenantal love in the middle of their deepest failings?